Mr. & Mrs. Sam Warren
5403 32nd Street
Lubbock, Texas

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Warren:

During my visit to your city last week, I had definite plans of getting by for a short visit. I have worked with your son, Troy, in Canada and consider him and his wife to be some of the best workers we have in Canada.

Troy has spoken of you in such a way that I had a great desire of getting to know you. I am sure that he reflects the training and encouragement of your home.

Unfortunately, business matters in Abilene prevented my getting to Lubbock prior to my speaking time during the Lubbock Christian College Lectureship and then called for me to return to Abilene immediately after the service at which I spoke. This explains why I was not able to carry through with my plans to visit and become acquainted with you.

Thank you for rearing a son like Troy. He means a great deal to many of us. I do hope that the future will hold an opportunity for me to visit in your home.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
